

(a) Plan construction | Before post classification

(b) Fresh execution | Every routed post

Discovery uses no evaluation post or reference label. A saved plan bypasses all three discovery calls.

Each LLM retains its own plan across both datasets; every routed post receives a new execution response.